Harry,

I have attached hereto a little note I received yesterday from [redacted]. Aside from the fact that I think it takes an oscar for chutzpa. I really do not think it would be appropriate to retain Bob as a consultant. He has not been an active participant in OTE courses, and I am aware of no requirement for his consultative services. I am sending this to you with the thought in mind that there may be a requirement elsewhere in the directorate for his continued services. If not, let me know, and I will call Bob and tell him that I cannot retain him but that perhaps he can become Reserve Officer Number One in Bob Magee's new scheme.

I would appreciate it very much if you would have me added to the OTE list of consultants and lecturers. This would enable me to retain my clearances, be available for occasional use if something of interest came up, and be more viable in seeking other opportunities to which the clearances would pertain. It would imply no commitment on your part or that of OTE to engage me. Many thanks.
